Anne-Arundel County, to wit:

CHARLES ELDER, of Anne-Arundel county, having, by petition in writing, applied to the subscriber, chief judge of the third judicial district, in the recess of Anne-Arundel county court, for the benefit of the insolvent laws of the state of Maryland, and having offered to deliver up to the use of his creditors, all his property, real, personal and mixed, (his wearing apparel and bedding for himself and his family excepted) having annexed a schedule of his property, and a list of his creditors, on oath, as far as he can ascertain them, to his said petition, having given notice, previous to his said application, in the manner prescribed and directed by the act of assembly of November session, 1805, entitled, An act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, of his intention to apply for the benefit of the said insolvent laws, and having satisfied the subscriber that he hath resided the two last years preceding the said application within the state of Maryland, and the said Charles Elder being now confined in the prison of Anne-Arundel county; it is, this thirteenth day of January, in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred and eight, ordered, that the sheriff of Anne-Arundel county bring the body of the said Charles Elder before me, the undersigned, at my dwelling-house, in the city of Annapolis, on Thursday next, being the fourteenth instant, at nine o'clock in the morning of said day. Given under my hand, this 13th January, 1808.

JEREMIAH TOWNLEY CHASE.

To Joseph McCeney, Sheriff of Anne-Arundel county.

Anne-Arundel county, to wit:

CHARLES ELDER having appeared before me this 14th of January, 1808, pursuant to the above order, and having taken the oath prescribed by the second section of the act of assembly, entitled, An act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, I do hereby direct, that the said Charles Elder be discharged from imprisonment, and do appoint the 19th day of April next for the said Charles Elder to appear before Anne-Arundel county court, to answer such interrogatories as his creditors, or any of them, may propose to him.

JEREMIAH TOWNLEY CHASE,

Chief judge of the third judicial district.

ORDERED, That the said Charles Elder cause the above and foregoing to be published in the Maryland Gazette for six weeks successively.

J. T. CHASE.

Anne-Arundel county, January 20, 1808.

APPLICATION having been made to the subscriber, one of the associate judges of the third judicial district of Maryland, in the recess of Anne-Arundel county court, by the petition, in writing, of HENRY HODGES, of said county, praying for the benefit of the act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, on the terms mentioned in said act, a schedule of his property, and a list of his creditors, on oath, as far as he can ascertain them, being annexed to his said petition, and the subscriber being satisfied, by competent testimony, that the said Henry Hodges has resided the two preceding years within the state of Maryland, prior to the passage of said act, and the said Henry Hodges, at the time of presenting his said petition, having produced, in writing, the assent of so many of his creditors as have due to them the amount of two thirds of the debts due by him at the time of preferring his petition; it is ordered by the subscriber, that the said Henry Hodges, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in the Maryland Gazette, at Annapolis, and in some one of the news-papers in the city of Baltimore, weekly, for three months successively before the twenty-third day of April next, give notice to his creditors to appear before the judges of Anne-Arundel county court, at the court-house, in the city of Annapolis, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of the twenty-third day of April next, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit, on the said Henry Hodges's then and there taking the oath prescribed by the said act for delivering up his property.

RICHARD H. HARWOOD, One of the associate judges for the third judicial district of Maryland.

In CHANCERY, February 6, 1808.

ORDERED, That the sale made by RICHARD H. HARWOOD, trustee for the sale of the real estate of BENJAMIN BURGESS, deceased, shall be ratified and confirmed, unless cause to the contrary be shewn before the 5th day of April next, provided a copy of this order be inserted three successive weeks in the Maryland Gazette before the 5th day of March next.

The report states, that 120 acres of land, in Anne-Arundel county, was sold at ten dollars per acre, incumbered with dower.

True copy,

NOTICE.

THE subscriber is under the painful necessity of announcing to the public his intention to petition the next Anne-Arundel county court, or one of its judges, in the recess of the court, for the benefit of an act of assembly, entitled, An act for the benefit of insolvent debtors, passed November session, 1805, and the supplementary act thereto, passed November session, 1806.

JOSEPH HOPKINS.
Anne-Arundel county, February 1, 1808.

NOTICE.

THE subscriber intends petitioning the court of Anne-Arundel county, at their next session, or some one of the judges thereof, in the recess of the court, for the benefit of the act for the relief of insolvent debtors, after this notice shall have been published two months.

JOHN LANE, of SAMUEL.

January 19, 1808.

In CHANCERY, February 5, 1808.
George Wells and Gideon White, vs.

Samuel Young, heir at law of John Young, deceased. THE object of the bill in this cause filed, is to obtain a decree for the sale of the real estate of John Young, late of Anne-Arundel county, deceased; the bill states, that the said John Young, at the time of his death, was indebted to the said George Wells, on open account, in the sum of fifteen pounds three shillings and a penny, and to the said Gideon White in the sum of thirty-seven pounds two shillings and ten-pence, that the personal estate of the deceased is wholly insufficient for the payment of his debts, and that Samuel Young, the defendant, is heir at law of the said John Young, and out of the state of Maryland, beyond the jurisdiction of this court. It is thereupon, this 5th day of February, eighteen hundred and eight, by William Kilty, chancellor, and by the authority of this court, adjudged, ordered, and decreed, that the complainant cause a copy of this order to be inserted in the Maryland Gazette, at least three successive weeks, before the 5th day of March, warning the defendant that he be and appear in this court, in person, or by solicitor, on or before the 5th day of July next, to shew cause why a decree should not pass as prayed.

In CHANCERY, February 5, 1808.

Thomas Sellman, against
Dennis Battee, and others, heirs at law of John Battee.

THE object of the bill in this cause filed, is to obtain from the defendants a conveyance of three tracts of land, in Anne-Arundel county, called Burridge, Burridge's Blossom, and Burridge's End; the bill states, that John Battee, in his lifetime, gave his bond to a certain Leonard Sellman, in the penalty of two thousand pounds current money, for the conveyance of said land, that said bond was assigned by Leonard Sellman to the complainant, that the whole of the purchase money has been paid to said Battee, that the complainant has had peaceable possession of the property since the assignment, and that Dennis Battee, one of the defendants, is out of the state of Maryland, beyond the jurisdiction of this court. It is thereupon, this 5th day of February, 1808, by William Kilty, chancellor, and by the authority of this court, adjudged and ordered, that the complainant cause a copy of this order to be inserted in the Maryland Gazette, at least three successive weeks before the 5th day of March next, warning the said Dennis Battee that he be and appear in this court, in person, or by solicitor, on or before the 5th day of July next, to shew cause why a decree should not pass as prayed.
